TWO CENTS

MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Was Topic of Discussion at Directors' Meeting Held on Thursday

ASK MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

The Chamber of Commerce asks the people of Charleroi to display flags at half mast on the 30th day of May, and that all citizens observe Memorial Day in a fitting and proper way. This was the decision of the Board of Directors at their meeting on Thursday afternoon.

Attorney Roy I. Carson was asked to investigate the necessary legal requirements of constructing an auditorium on the third floor of the building, such as fire escapes and other such requirements.

J. B. Tussing and J. S. Heffner each gave a talk on membership requirements. Mr. Tussing has analyzed the entire membership and especially as to those who have paid annually, semi-annually, and quarterly. He will make certain definite recommendations at the next Board meeting. J. S. Heffner, Secretary-Manager of the Chamber read those parts of the constitution that have to do with memberships. He stated that there was only one possible way to become a member and that was by signing the regularly provided membership application card, and that after this card has been presented to the Board of Directors, such person must either then be elected or rejected by the Board, and that this election must be by two-thirds vote of the Directors present at any regular meeting. The constitution provides five ways by which one may cease to be a member, all of which must first be passed upon by the Board of Directors. These are non-payment of dues; misconduct; resignation; death and removal. At the present time the recorders show that there are 494 members of the Chamber.

SENT TO THE "PEN" FOR ATTEMPTED ARSON

Mat Matovich, of Donora, in court at Washington on Thursday, admitted he was guilty of attempted arson. He was sentenced to the penitentiary to serve from one to five years. The defendant attempted to set fire to the home of Mrs. Seukum in that town.

WILL MEMORIAL DAY BE OBSERVED HERE?

Inquiry has been by some of our citizens, at The Mail office, as to whether there will be any organized movement this year for the observance of Memorial Day in Charleroi.

One civil war veteran who made inquiry on Friday, said that members of the Grand Army of the Republic are now too few and too far advanced in age to take an active part in this observance, but that it was hoped that the veterans of other wars would take up the work where they had laid it down and carry it forward as in years past.

In many of the towns of the valley preparations are now under way to properly observe this Memorial Day for the soldier, and the veteran who visited The Mail office on Friday said he hoped Charleroi would follow their example. There is no Grand Army Post in Charleroi, and veterans of the great civil conflict are looking to the local Post of the American Legion or the Veterans of Foreign Wars to perpetuate the day. It is not too late yet for an organized movement along this line, if only veterans of former wars will take the lead.

T. V. M'KINLEY TO LEAVE BELLEVERNON

Thos. C. McKinley, who has been the superintendent of the Belle Vernon plant of the American Window Glass company for the past ten years has severed his connection with that company to go with the Libby-Owens Corporation. Mr. McKinley's official connection with the American company ceased Friday night, and within a few days he expects to go to Charleston, W. Va., where the home office of the Libby-Owens company is located, for instructions. From there he will go to Toledo, Ohio, but just what plant he will have charge of he is not yet advised. His place as superintendent of the Belle Vernon plant will be taken by H. F. Clark, of the engineering department of the American Window Glass company, and who has been located in Pittsburgh for a number of years.

Hagenbeck and Wallace Show Arrived on Time

This is an ideal circus day, and Charleroi is enjoying it to the fullest extent. Hagenbeck and Wallace, with their great aggregation of splendors and curiosities, arrived here this morning at 6 o'clock from Uniontown, and at once began the task of unloading near the freight station.

This part of the circus has its entertaining features, and hundreds of people, as well as many visitors from outside towns and communities were on hand to greet the big show. The speed and precision in which the unloading was accomplished was a matter of general comment, and showed just what proficiency can do when it is properly applied. As fast as wagons and animals were unloaded they were taken to the show grounds, from where the parade started.

The parade was unlike any circus pageant seen in Charleroi in the past, in that everything about it was new and shining. The wagons and floats were newly grained and varnished, trapping and caparisons glistened, costumes were fresh and the horses really pranced, just as circus pictures, always represent them as doing.

Speaking of horses, the "Noble Six Hundred," the famous Hagenbeck-Wallace collection, formed one of the most pleasing features of the whole thing. Each one of these horses is a beauty and stepped along as if proudly conscious of the fact.

Bands were plentiful and were liberal with their music. There was a clown band, "rube" band, the big band that supplies music during the main performance, a negro minstrel band, and a couple of others, evidently thrown in for good measure. In addition, in a musical way, there was a large electric piano and the huge calliope.

Clowns were everywhere. Their humor was of the wholesome kind, without offensive features.

The animal cages were open, affording the crowds a good view of the wild beasts. In this respect, again, the parade differed from other pageants. Not all occupants of the zoo are taken out for street exhibition, but enough were in line today to convey some idea of what is to be seen in the big zoo.

There were elephants, lions, tigers, pumas, leopards, cougars, onagras, kangaroos, aoudads, llamas, the big hippopotamus, camels, the yak, Drousky, albino and other kinds of deer, black, cinnamon and grizzly bears, lynx, hyenas, monkeys—too many to remember or record in the time allowed. Four of the lions are said to be the largest in captivity.

The matinee began at 2 o'clock, with an immense crowd in attendance. Tonight's performance will begin at 8 o'clock, but doors will be opened at 7 o'clock, in order that all may have time in which to visit the menagerie, which lies between the main entrance and the big tent and is free to all holders of circus tickets.

Many people dislike to mingle with large crowds that are always to be found about circus ticket wagons. For their convenience a downtown office is being maintained during the day at the Piper drug store. General admission and reserved seat tickets are sold there at the same prices as are charged at the show grounds.

ARREST THIEVES AFTER ROBBERY

The Miners' Supply company store of Marianna was robbed early last Sunday morning, when clothing and jewelry to the value of about $1,500 was taken. The robbery was discovered by the night watchman, who notified the store manager, C. J. Anderson, who, after a search, located the robbers.

It was found that two big lights in the glass doors had been broken, thus affording the robbers easy access to the store room. After Mr. Anderson had located the robbers he called the chief of police, and two men were arrested, named Cas Cashmere and Joe Sorinsky, who, after a severe grilling, finally admitted the theft. Most of the goods were recovered.

COMMUNITY CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED

The new community church, which was recently completed at Vestaburg will be formally dedicated Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The program will include several addresses and special music, and will be in charge of Rev. Frank Fish, the pastor. The community church is the outgrowth of a Sunday school established at Vestaburg in 1911, over which the American Sunday School Union had jurisdiction. In January, 1920, it was decided to erect a community church, which was completed at a cost of between $8,000 and $10,000. The building furnishings were purchased by the congregation.

FAYETTE CO. MAN TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

John Henry Wiggins, aged 47 years of Chalk Hill, Fayette county, who has been in failing health for a number of years, and who for three weeks past has been visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. R. A. Rankin, in Amwell township, took his own life last evening by firing the contents of a shotgun shell through his chest. He was found near the Rankin home about 7 o'clock. Mr. Wiggins had been despondent for some time because of his health, which forced him to give up active work three years ago.

PROF. I. T. DANIEL DIRECTS PRESENTATION

Prof. I. T. Daniel directed the presentation of "The Egyptian Princess," an operetta by Charles Vincent and which was given by the music and art departments of the Friday Conversational Club in Monongahela, last evening. The production was witnessed by a large attendance.

LOSE IN RACE TO SAVE BOY'S LIFE

Driving an ambulance 25 miles an hour, through a blinding rainstorm, physicians of Donora, Friday afternoon, lost a race with death when they tried to reach the McKeesport hospital in time to save the life of a boy, aged 4 years, struck by an automobile while playing in the street near his home. He died three hours after being admitted to the hospital.

The child was Wayne Hagerston of Donora. He was playing in front of his home, when he suddenly darted in front of an automobile driven by William Risbeck. The car was being driven slowly according to Burgess Cix, but the driver was unable to stop the machine and the wheels passed over the child.

Physicians called by the father said the child had a fractured skull, and who told the parent the only hope of saving the boy's life was an operation at the hospital. The trip to McKeesport was suggested and the physician said it offered a fighting chance. The boy's injuries, however, proved to be too serious, and it was found impossible to save him.

TWO NEW COUNTY OFFICES CREATED

Among the measures approved by Governor William C. Sproul is the McDade bill, providing for the election of one person as prothonotary and one person as clerk of the Courts of Quarter Sessions in counties of the fourth class, which are Berks, Cambria, Fayette, Dauphin, Delaware, Lancaster, Erie, Montgomery, Schuylkill and Washington. These counties now have prothonotaries who are also clerks of courts. The law becomes effective at the first municipal election after the approval of the bill, the terms of both officers to be four years.

TOWNSHIPS CAN NOW ACQUIRE PLAYGROUNDS

Governor William C. Sproul has signed the Blair bill, extending to townships the provisions of the act of 1919 empowering cities of the second and third class and boroughs and counties to acquire and maintain playgrounds, gymnasiums, baths, swimming pools and recreation centers.

One Thousand Dollars Will Be Given for Capture and Conviction

OFFICIALS FOLLOWING CLUES

The Commissioners of Washington county, after a conference on Friday with the District Attorney, decided to offer a reward of $1,000 for the capture of the person or persons who entered the home of J. E. Richardson, Bentleyville, on the night of April 30, and shot Mr. Richardson, from the effects of which he died the following day.

The person who apprehends the perpetrator of the deed must be able to supply information that will be sufficient to prosecute and convict him. The county officials have been working diligently on this case for the past two weeks, but thus far it is said their efforts have been unavailing.

Many rumors have been in circulation since the shooting of Mr. Richardson, but none of them appear to have had any foundation in fact. The district attorney and his officers are making every effort to obtain clues that might lead to the apprehension of the person or persons guilty of the crimes, but if anything has been uncovered they are keeping it quiet. It has been said that some startling revelations will be made some time, but just what they will be the officials refuse to state. Significance is attached by some to the brush and cakes of soap found on the doorstep of the Richardson home, after the murder, but if there are regarded as a clue to the perpetrator of the deed, or to any society, the officials are likewise keeping it quiet.

However, county officials are leaving nothing undone to search out and punish the murderer, whoever he may be. Bentleyville people are anxious to have the matter cleared up, as well as the county officials.

DIVORCE GRANTED TO CALIFORNIA WOMAN

A decree in divorce has been granted Mae Phillips Paxton from Dr. C. F. Paxton of California, on grounds of infidelity. The plaintiff named Edna Young of California, as the correspondent. Dr. Paxton's answer filed October 22, according to the decree, was shown to be false and groundless. Dr. Paxton is prohibited from marrying the correspondent during Mrs. Paxton's lifetime.

Miss White was formerly of Ellsworth, and is known to many Charleroi people. She would have graduated in June. HAPPINESS VS. PLEASURE.

People imprisoned think. The vast majority think wrongly, the bitterness of their fate curdling their philosophy. Recently one of these, a convict in Ohio, wrote one of those sublime thoughts which come only to those who commune with their souls in solitude. He wrote these words:

"Happiness is what we might have had if we had not preferred pleasure."

He knew. On a narrow, iron cot, hemmed in by steel and stone, he realized that his pursuit of the will-o-the-wisp, Pleasure, had led him from Happiness toward the cell in which Life and Hope are buried. The world and his wife and children are seeking Pleasure in frantic haste, rushing wildly along, speeding toward cells or destruction, passing in the mad flight without seeing the quiet, shaded by-ways in which Happiness waits.

The convict in his cell realizes that he mistook Pleasure for Happiness. Too many of the rest of us fail to read the constitution aright. It reads a guarantee of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness"—not of pleasure.

Too many of us, opposing laws and governmental policies, get the idea that the constitution reads "pleasure." The word is "happiness."

HUNTER CARNIVAL MONESSEN GROUNDS

There are carnivals and carnivals and have been since the happy days of "Merrie England", where this form of amusement originated, but it is doubtful, says the press agent if such a meritorious combination was ever gotten together—even in the days of Robin Hood—as that featured by showman Harry Hunter, which opens Saturday on the Monessen Bridge show grounds. This is a combination of circus, menagerie, museum and wild west, the latter "to the manner born" in a red Indian cowboy way, with wild and tame animals garnered from all quarters of the earth, the result of years of careful search and discrimination. The grounds will be illuminated by thousands of electric lights. They will resemble a scenario from "Mid-Summer Night's Dream." The spectacle will be well worth a visit if only to see and admire the great white way. The best of order will be maintained as ample police protection has been provided. Ladies and children need not hesitate to pay these wonderful attractions a visit.

Mrs. SELCHERT'S DAUGHTER

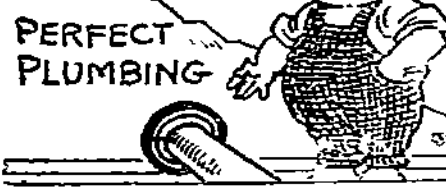

Was Restored to Health by
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Horicon, Wis.—"My young daughter has been troubled for several months with backache and a bad feeling in her stomach. When she got to the table to eat she did not want anything, while before she was so hungry she could hardly wait for her dinner. The doctors gave her medicine but it did not help her. One day I was reading a little book of yours which was left on my porch and it reminded me that when I was a young girl I took several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So she went to the drug store and got a bottle and after the second dose she could eat and has not had backache since. In all she took six bottles of it. She goes to school and on Saturdays helps with the housework. She is a normal, healthy girl now and we recommend your medicine. You have my permission to publish this letter as a testimonial for the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. FRANK SELCHERT, 150 Larabee St., Horicon, Wis.

Mothers all over the country have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to be a most reliable remedy for such conditions.

The Most Beautiful Car in America

The Qualities of a Champion

World's Championship form is the best guarantee of all round efficiency that the sporting world affords. That is the real significance of our great victory with the Paige "Daytona" 6-66 model on January 21st.

When this car won the world's stock chassis record by traveling at the rate of 102.8 miles per hour it proved itself, not merely a fast car, but a superlatively fine engineering achievement.

You can establish this fact for yourself by riding in any Paige 6-66. Then, at a mere snail's pace or with the throttle half open, you will sense the finely balanced construction and immense reserve power that is basic and fundamental.

We invite you to test the 6-66 and compare it with any other car—at any price—on the American market. If you once know that exclusive power plant you will know the Paige story as no words can tell it.
